

Brief Contents

Chapter 1	The Study of Psychological Adjustment and Coping	1
Chapter 2	Adjustment in Everyday Life	35
Chapter 3	Adjusting to Positive versus Negative Life Events	89
Chapter 4	Physical and Mental Health Issues	123
Chapter 5	Close Relationships: Initiations, Maintenance, and Terminations	167
Chapter 6	Death and Dying: Thinking about Our Own Mortality and Coping with the Loss of Others	215
Chapter 7	General Cognitive-Based Techniques of Coping	251
Chapter 8	Interpersonal Influences	289
Chapter 9	Seeking Help: Therapeutic Interventions, Treatment, and Other Alternatives	323

Contents

Preface

Chapter 1

The Study of Psychological Adjustment and Coping

What Is Meant by “Psychological Adjustment?”

The Importance of Studying Psychological Adjustment

The Study of Psychological Adjustment:
An Inherent “Real World” Flavor

The Study of Psychological Adjustment: Linkages to Many Psychological Subfields

Social Psychology
Personality
Health Psychology
Clinical Psychology
Other Relevant Fields of Inquiry

Three Basic Themes in Adjustment Research

When Are We Adjusting to an Event as Opposed to Coping With an Event?

Coping as a Process

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Chapter 2

Adjustment in Everyday Life

The Study of Everyday Life

How We Experience and Interpret Life Has a Lot to Do with Our Personality

The Psychodynamic Approach:
Freud and the Neo-Freudians

The Behaviorist Approach
The Humanistic Approach
The Trait Approach

Gender, Sex, and Sexuality Defined

ix

Other Key Variables that Influence Everyday Adjustment

Work and Careers:
Choosing a Career or Merely Finding a Job?

Physical and
Social Environmental Situations

Age, Life Experience, and Generational Effects

Race, Religion, and Culture

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Chapter 3

Adjusting to Positive versus Negative Life Events

A Brief Overview of

How We Experience Stress

Key Characteristics

and Differences Between
“Positive” and “Negative” Life Events

Some Examples of

Positive and Negative Life Events

Adjustment in a Post-9/11 World

Historical Examples of

Adjustment: The Holocaust and American Civil Rights Movement

Why It Is Important to Make a Distinction
Between Positive and Negative Events

How Positive Events Can
Sometimes Have Negative Aspects

How Negative Events Can
Sometimes Produce Positive Benefits

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Chapter 4

Physical and Mental Health Issues

Understanding Health:

Physical Health as a Starting Point

Promoting Healthy Behavior:
An Overview of Physical, Behavioral, and Psychological Factors	126
On Losing Weight and Staying Fit: Diet and Exercise Habits.	128
Sleep: A Good Night Really Equals Good Health.	136
Coping with Illness	138
Linking Physical and Mental Health: The Potentially Harmful Effects of Stress	140
Mental Health	147
Why Failure to Adjust Can Lead to Psychological Disorders	148
How We Determine a Person's Mental Health: Categories of Mental Disorders	151
Mood and Affective Disorders	153
Anxiety Disorders	155
Other Major Types of Mental Illness	158
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	160

Chapter 5

Close Relationships: Initiations, Maintenance, and Terminations 167

Relationship Categories	169
The Changing Shape of Families	169
The Parent-Child Relationship and Other Familial Bonds	171
Friendship	176
Romantic and Marital Relationships: Moving Towards Love	178

The Anatomy of a Love or Marital Relationship	181
Once Upon a Time: Initial Stages of Attraction	183
Factors Pertaining to Psychological Attraction	183
Factors Pertaining to Physical Attraction	184
Act Two: Maintaining an Intimate Relationship	188
Dealing with Family and Non-family Related Struggles	193

The End: Why Marriages and Love Relationships Sometimes Fail	197
Demographics and Relationship Qualities as Predictors of Divorce	198

Evolutionary Perspectives	201
Emotion-Communication Perspectives	205
Some Concluding Thoughts on Why Relationships End	207
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	208

Chapter 6

Death and Dying: Thinking about Our Own Mortality and Coping with the Loss of Others 215

Thinking About Our Own Mortality	216
The Relevance of Terror Management Theory	218
Why Would We Even Want to Think about Our Own Mortality?	220
The Experience of Dying: Physical, Social, and Psychological Dimensions	222
And Then There Are the Survivors: On Bereavement, Grief, and Mourning	227
Is It Appropriate to Construct Stages of Grief?	232
Expressions of Grief: Mourning in Conventional and Unconventional Ways	234
Finding Meaning in Life and Death	237
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	245

Chapter 7

General Cognitive-Based Techniques of Coping 251

Think about It: The Role of Cognition in Coping	252
Four Theories Highlight the Importance of Cognition in Coping	255
The Relevance of Attribution Theory to Adjustment and Coping	255
I Think, Therefore I (Can) Cope: The Theory of Cognitive Adaptation	262
Types of Control and Their Importance in the Coping Process	264
Trying to Make Life Good Again: The Assumptive Worlds Model	268
It's All Going to Be OK: Hope Theory	271

Some Select Cognitive-Based Techniques and Methods	275
Relaxation Training and Imagery	276
Accentuating the Positive and Eliminating the Negative: It's Really Possible!	278
What Could Have Been:
The Role of Counterfactual Thinking	280
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	283

Chapter 8

Interpersonal Influences	289
The Role of Social Support	290
Forms of Social Support and Who Receives It	291
Why Social Support Is Usually Helpful—but Not Always	292
Social Comparison Processes	296
Social Comparison Theory	296
Downward versus Upward Comparison:
The Benefits and Disadvantages of Each	297
The Impact of Disclosure and Confiding about Life Events	299
The Benefits and Risks of Confiding and Disclosure	300
Does Disclosure Have to Be an Act of Interpersonal Communication?	301
Looking for Support from Groups	303
The Nature and Dynamics of Support Groups	304
How Group Behavior May Adversely Affect an Individual	306
Conformity, Compliance, and Obedience	306
Group Polarization and Groupthink	311
Poor Advice, Fostering Prejudice, Stigmas, and Other Misunderstandings	312
Other Current Trends in Coping Research	314
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	316

Chapter 9

Seeking Help: Therapeutic Interventions, Treatment, and Other Alternatives	323
---	-----

Seeking Help: It's Not Always as Easy as You Might Think	324
Beyond (or Maybe Before) Therapy: Ways and Means of Getting Help	326
Psychotherapy: What It Is and Who Practices It	330
When Coping Strategies Just Don't Seem to Work: The Case for Therapy	334
Common Societal Stigmas
Against Psychotherapy and Mental Illness	336
The Major Approaches to Psychological-Based Therapies	338
Freudian Techniques	339
Behavioral Therapy	342
Cognitive-Based Therapies	344
Humanistic Therapies	346
Eclectic Therapy	350
Biomedical Therapies: Their General Rationale and Methods	351
Does Psychotherapy Really Work?
A Brief Overview of the Evidence	355
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	358

Appendix A

Studying Psychological Adjustment with the Scientific Method: A Brief Overview	365
Studying Psychological Adjustment with the Scientific Method	365
Theories: What They Are and How to Test Them	366
Basic versus Applied Research	367
Quantitative Methods: Experimental versus Correlational Studies	368
How to Conduct an Experimental Study:
Advantages and Disadvantages	370
How to Conduct a Correlational Study:
Advantages and Disadvantages	372
A Special Type of Correlational Study:
Quasi-Experimental Designs	375
Qualitative Methods: Their Basic Nature	376
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	377

Appendix B

Answers to the “Test Yourself!” End-of-Chapter Quizzes	379
---	-----

Glossary	383
----------	-----

References	399
------------	-----

Photo Credits	430
---------------	-----

Index	431
-------	-----